POSTAL 2

Live a week in the life of "The Postal Dude"; a hapless everyman just trying to check off some chores. Buying milk, returning an overdue library book, getting Gary Coleman's autograph, what could possibly go wrong?

Blast, chop and piss your way through a freakshow of American caricatures in this darkly humorous first-person adventure.

Meet Krotchy: the toy mascot gone bad, visit your Uncle Dave at his besieged religious cult compound and battle sewer-dwelling Taliban when you least expect them! Endure the sphincter-clenching challenge of cannibal rednecks, corrupt cops and berserker elephants. Accompanied by Champ, the Dude's semi-loyal pitbull, battle your way through open environments populated with amazingly unpredictable AI. Utilize an arsenal of weapons ranging from a humble shovel to a uniquely hilarious rocket launcher.

Collect a pack of attack dogs! Use cats as silencers! Piss and pour gasoline on anything and everyone! YOU KNOW YOU

This game is hardcore!

You are the Postal Dude, and are tasked with daunting errands such as: going to the bank, going to church, buying milk, and even going to your uncle's birthday party!

I personally loved playing this game on Postal difficulty, in which every civilian is heavily armed, and desire nothing but to shower you with bullets. Also, Postal difficulty doesn't allow save scumming or keeping healing items.. You start casually on a Monday morning to go and make some simple errands for your house, you and your wife. You have also a pitbull dog, which is a loyal friend and will have a part to the game later on. For now you take the errand list and go to the city and meet their inhabitants. Now the way that you meet with them varies a little and you either just ignore them, speak to them or finally be their last human that will encounter in the rest of their lives. You can go postal on them and end their lives with melle, ranged or throwable gun and equipment. Every one of them, that will stop you to finish your list of errands and get back home again, for the new day to come. Anyone, that will be in your way to get milk, or vote and anything else, is fair game to you. Of course they will not stay without doing nothing. Every action will have a reaction. You can be peaceful or completely lunatic or as the game title go postal. The choice is yours the world is your oyster.. This game is great because you just basically kill everyone and bully the rest to accomplish your tasks for the day. It's way different from the original at least insofar as it's completely 3D and no longer isometric. I would say it's worth the ten dollar price tag even if it's old. I feel like there's a lot of hidden "you's" from the developers to whatever whiny organization that loves to whine about video games causing violence and other mindless melodramatic attention craving. 10/10. I get why it's banned in France now it makes fun of us French, and thus gay, people. E.Wolf's +5

1. Hilarious dialogue throughout the game.
2. Plenty of weapons to use from standard rifles and pistols to ridiculous weapons like a cat-silenced shotgun and a diseased cow head.
3. Fairly detailed locations, especially considering the age of the game.
4. A decent storyline that will have you travelling across the game world to accomplish various simple tasks, like grocery shopping and voting, while still murdering everyone in sight.
5. You can urinate on people. Not many games exist with that.. This is absolutely my favorite game of all time. <3. "in someone's face until they puked from it" this achievement says it all. possal na femenistok 10/10. now the flowers will grow

I regret nothing, not even writing the review in this way.. you can't really addictive!. In around 2003 Running with Scissors came out with sequel to a crazy game.. And while it's definitely showing it's age, it is still awesome.. Many have tried to duplicate this game, but not one has come close to the insanity of this game.. Now going on 16 years.. It's still tons of fun to play.. and yes it works fine on Windows 10.. Walking Ballsac <https://steamcommunity.com/sharedfiles/filedetails/?id=1740935180>. it has gary coleman shooting a gun 10/10. "hi there, would you like to sign my petition?"
